Segment 2

Strategies to Foster the Adoption of Technology for Team Members and Clients

Start with Why

- The “Why” for Team Members
 - Streamlines their Work to Increase their Productions Production Based Bonuses
 - Creates capacity they can use to learn and deploy “bookkeeping plus” services (e.g., cash flow projections, A/R Analytics, spending analysis, etc.) Production Based Bonuses
 - Creates a virtual friendly, mobile-friendly work environment Work/Life Harmonization
- The “Why” For Clients
 - Increased security
 - Ease of accessibility/bookkeeper collaboration – many times with mobile solutions
 - Optional Real time financial information (for an upgraded price!)

Important: You are not convincing your client to adopt bookkeeping solutions. You are motivating your client to use YOUR bookkeeping solutions interactively and intentionally!

In other words...

Put the Tuna on the other
Side of the Door!

Provide Accountability and Reinforcement

- Set Specific Goals/Milestones and Get Written Client and Team Member Agreements
- For Clients, Locate and Recruit Champions within the Client's Organization
- Regularly Reinforce the Connection between the Change and the "Why"
- Tie It to the Economics
 - Fold Client Adoption Resistance into Your Pricing Model with Scope Enforcement in Your Agreements.
 - Connect Employee Adoption Resistance to Reduced Productions and Subsequently Reduced Production Bonuses.
- Exercise Frequent "Small" Confrontations
- Terminate the Relationship with the Client or Team Member When Necessary

Build Active Trust

Passive Trust vs. Active Trust

- Passive Trust: I Trust You to Perform in a way that is Consistent with Your Professional Ethics (Loaned) and Past Behavior (Reinforced)
- Passive Trust: I Trust You to Provide Your Services in a Way that is Accurate and Timely (Earned)
- Active Trust: I trust your guidance and will adjust my life and business accordingly

Earning Active Trust

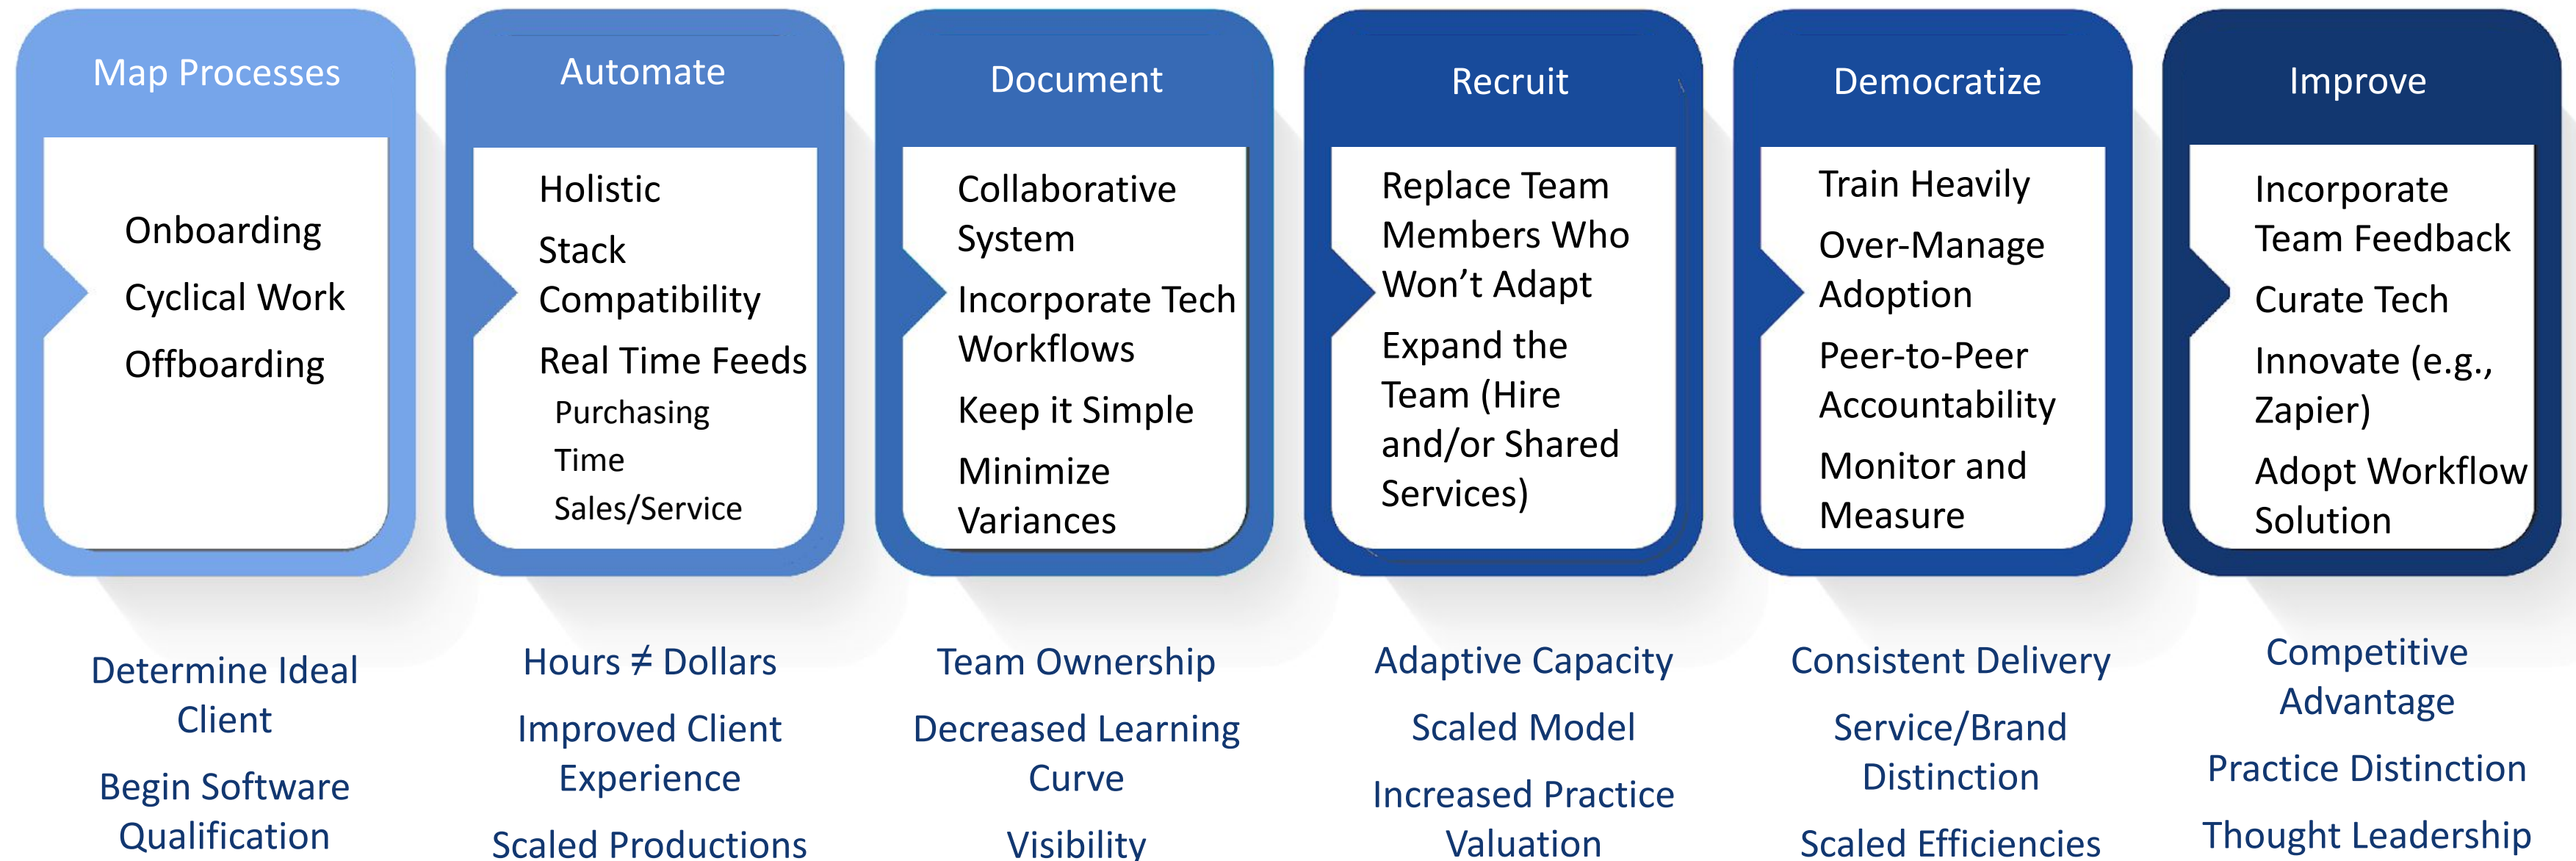

Did you know? We actively coach hundreds of firms in the areas of technology strategies, technology adoption, client leadership and team leadership!
